estate?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Well, no, they have...I've seen them, they're those kind of forms where you have to tear off the front to see the inside.

SENATOR CROSBY: Oh, right, right. I know, um-huh.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: And so they may have to have a separate mailer.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: But it's a one-time thing, once a year.

SENATOR CROSBY: But you have...yeah, okay. Thank you.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Byars.

SENATOR BYARS: Thank you, Mr. President. I think....Senator Schimek, will you yield to a question, please.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes.

SENATOR BYARS: As near as I can see in the amendment, just having a brief time to review it, I think I'm very supportive, and I think you're doing exactly the right thing. I would want to commend you. But I want to make absolutely certain, for those of us that have been concerned about eliminating the publication portion of that statute, that that's not happening, correct?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: No, this has nothing to do with publication at all. And in fact, when I first brought my first bill, it had nothing to do with publication.

SENATOR BYARS: Okay, thank you, Senator Schimek. I rise to support Senator Schimek's amendment. I think it's going to help those people who have been at risk and in jeopardy of not being clear on what the law states as far as their taxes are concerned. And it's still going to allow the county treasurers to place notification within their official newspapers in order
